

Mary “Molly” (Ducey) Dale is granddaughter of Marie Corinne Patout (Burguières) Ducey and Cornelius “Neal” Thomas Ducey, Sr., the daughter of Cornelius “Tom” Thomas Ducey, Jr. and Barbara Ann Ducey, and the sister of Kerry Haydel (Ducey) Dailey and Cornelius “Neal” Thomas Ducey, III.

Molly graduated from the all-girls, Catholic high school, Cor Jesu Academy class of 1996 in St. Louis Missouri, college at Texas Christian University class of 2000 with a degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders (speech-language pathology), and graduate school at Massachusetts General Hospital-Institute of Health Professions with a Master’s +30 degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders.

Molly currently resides in Roswell, Georgia with her husband of thirteen years, Brandon, their nine years old daughter, Gracie, their five years old son, Brady, and their Golden Retriever, Moxie. Their children attend a Spanish-immersion school.

In their free time, they love to spend time outside in their cul-de-sac with neighbors, ride bikes, play tennis, read, participate in community activities, decorate for holidays, travel, and on especially cold or rainy days, play in “Dale Family, Nintendo Switch Golf, Tennis, and/or Bowling Tournaments”.

Molly established a respected, private, pediatric speech-language pathology practice in the Buckhead area of Atlanta, Georgia in 2010. Her specific areas of expertise are late talkers, receptive language, and articulation. Molly is known around Buckhead for being the “Late Talker Whisperer” and the “R-Queen”.
