

2016 J. M. Burguières Family Council Election Slate of Nominees

Denis P. J. Branch Representative - Voting will be for one person from this group

Emily Sandefer

Emily is the daughter of Bill and Trudy Sandefer, granddaughter of Ronald and Gail Cambre. A graduate of Tulane University, she received her BA in Art History and Studio Art (Photography). While at Tulane, she was on the crew team as well as a member of Phi Mu Fraternity. She received her MA in Museum Studies from New York University. While at NYU Emily was on the board of the Museum Studies Student Organization acting as the Professional Chair.

Emily brings a variety of experience at the local (NOMA, Tabasco), national (Museum of Arts and Design), and international level (Opera Gallery, Villa La Pietra). She lives in New Orleans, LA where she is a Program Analyst for the USDA National Finance Center. She also works part time at Lululemon Athletica. She is currently a running coach for Sacred Heart Academy's afterschool program "Girls on the Run." Emily is on the development committee of the New Orleans Young Leadership Council. She has been involved with the Heritage Education Program (HEP) and is currently assisting in the creation of a kid-friendly packet of family history activities targeted to the JMB children.

"I am a part of the younger generation of the JMB family. I think it is important that we foster opportunities for the next generation of JMB to feel connected and excited to be a part of this family company and its history."

Daniel P. "Dan" Kammer

I am Daniel P. Kammer (Dan). I am the son of Jane Ivey Kammer and the late Martial Burguières Kammer, Sr. I am the grandson of the late Marie Alice Burguières Saint (Booty). I was born in New Orleans in 1964. My siblings are Martial, Jr., Kristen and Kevin. I have 3 nephews and a niece. I attended the University of Louisiana Lafayette. I have a B.S. in Liberal Arts from Excelsior College and a D.C. (Doctor of Chiropractic) from Life University in Marietta, GA. I operate a wellness focused, private practice in Memphis, TN. I provide hands-on, drug free health care emphasizing structure, nutrition, exercise and stress management. I routinely provide affordable care to the uninsured/underinsured.

The JMB Companies is a source of great pride for all of us. I remember my grandmother repeating to me, "We must never, ever sell the land." I'm glad we didn't. I have keenly observed the growth and diversification of the JMB Companies over the last 30 years and I would like to participate in protecting the historical significance and legacy assets that have been so carefully minded by some incredibly gifted people. Serving on the JMB Assembly Family Council is an opportunity for me to practice the principle of service that has been integral to the Company's longevity and success.

Catherine Clerc Eagan

I am the mother of Courtney, Caroline, and Fred Eagan and the daughter of Marion Clerc. We are descendants of the Inez Branch of our family. I am also the Chair of the Family Council. It has been an honor to serve as the Family Council Chair and work with so many dedicated Family members. As a child, I can remember listening to my mother and Ed Burguières talk about the family and the family business. I didn't really understand all of their conversations, and now wish I had been old enough to grasp what they were discussing. I think it is so important that future generations really understand where the Burguières family has come from and how unique it is to be part of a family business that has been in existence for over 125 years!

Member- At-Large - Voting will be for one person from this group

Caitlin Badeaux

I am the daughter of Robin Cambre, the granddaughter of Ronald Cambre and Gail (Burguières) Cambre, and the niece of Susanne Cambre. I have one sister, Cory Badeaux. Born and raised in New Orleans, Louisiana, I moved to New York in 2006 after Hurricane Katrina, and one year later went on to study at Boston University where I received a B.S. in Marketing. At BU, I served as the Director of Fundraising for my sorority, Delta Gamma, and interned at Four Seasons Hotel Boston. At the Four Seasons, I created the Very Important Kids Program, which the hotel adopted and attributed to an increase in sales.

In 2015, I received my MBA in Finance from Fordham University. While at Fordham, I was a member of the school's Women in Business Club and was selected to be a participant in the distinguished Mentor Program. I am also a member of Hedge Funds Care, a non-profit organization that prevents and treats child abuse. Further, I am an active member in 100 Women in Hedge Funds, which promotes education and mentorship to women in the financial industry.

After interning at Jefferies Investment Bank, I accepted a consultant's position at Castle Hill Capital Partners, an independent hedge fund advisory firm. At Castle Hill, I advise hedge fund clients on their marketing strategy, and introduce them to appropriate institutional investors to raise capital. My job requires that I foster relationships, trust and results.

I've grown up listening to the JMB story and have seen how meaningful JMB is to my family. I want to become a part of its legacy and hope to follow in my Aunt and Grandfather's footsteps and be a leader within the Company. I am prepared to dedicate my time and talents to the mission of the Family Council.

Kemper Williams Brown, Jr.

Kemper Williams Brown, Jr. is running for the At-Large position of the Family Council. He is the son of Kemper Williams Brown of the Ernest Burguières branch of the family. His grandmother is the late Joan Burguières Brown, daughter of Ernest A. Burguières, Sr. He has been a shareholder of the company since 2011, member of the Family Council since 2013, and an attendee of each Shareholder and Family Assembly Meeting since 2007.

Kemper was born and raised in Asheville, North Carolina and grew up the son of an entrepreneur. In 2004, he left Asheville for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he satisfied a lifelong interest in the sciences by earning a BS in Chemistry. Following graduation, he held both science and business focused positions at two biotechnology firms in Research Triangle Park, NC before returning to Asheville to join his father in business at The Electronic Office in 2011. Since 2011, he has worked at The Electronic Office and currently serves as Vice President and Treasurer of the company. He is a member of the Family Business Forum at UNC-Asheville and has also completed GenSpan's Next Generation Family Business Leadership Forum, a yearlong development program for next generation family business leaders. He is also an avid skier and tennis player.

During Kemper's time on the Family Council he has chaired the Policies and Procedures Committee as well as serving on the Communications Committee. He also worked with the Education & Family History Committee on the creation of the Jules M. Burguières Sr. Education Award.

"Serving the Family (Assembly) over the past 3 years has been a great pleasure and a wonderful experience. This family has long been a source of pride and a key cog in the ongoing success of our company. I look forward to building upon this legacy as well as promoting unity within the family, and supporting the mission of the company."
